

Youth Summit - July 22 - 24, 2009

Who: Breathe California of Sacramento- Emigrant Trails
& the Sacramento Chinese Community Service Center

What: Youth Summit - Open to youth and young adults interested in developing leadership skills.

Why: Youth Summit is a FREE three-day, fun filled, leadership camp for youth held at Valley of the Moon in Sonoma County. Youth Summit offers the opportunity for young people to come together and learn how to develop tobacco-free activities in their schools and communities. YSPC members will meet once a month to help plan Youth Summit 2009, which will take place July 22nd-24th. All members will have the opportunity to serve as camp counselors, gain invaluable community and event organizing experience, and receive incentive items for their participation. Committee members are encouraged to commit to the organization until the end of July.
